1   What is a strongly typed view in ASP.NET MVC?

A view that returns a different type of ActionResult other than ViewResult

A view that does not have a defined model to render.

A view used to render a specific type of model.

A partial view.

2   Can MVC Lifecycle be run without a Model?

TRUE

FALSE

3   What does the View do?

manages presenting information to the user

manages communication between the model and the controller